

Applicant Qualifications

In order to be considered for a San Diego Press Club Foundation Scholarship, applicants must meet the Scholarship Eligibility Requirements. Applicants not meeting these requirements are ineligible and will not be considered for a scholarship.

Two scholarships will be given: a $2000 award to a community college student and a $3000 award to a four-year University or college student. Awards will be made on May 10, 2010. Winners and their families will be invited to a special luncheon hosted by the San Diego Press Club Board of Directors.

The application deadline is March 19, 2010.

Scholarship Eligibility Requirements:

1. Applicants must be accepted for admission and attending as a full-time undergraduate or graduate student during the 2010-2011 academic year.
2. Applicants must intend to pursue a career in journalism.
3. Applicants attending college outside of San Diego County must be a permanent resident of San Diego County. Applicants attending in San Diego need not be San Diego residents.

Materials to be submitted:

1. Completed Application Form.
2. A short statement of your education/experience in journalism and your career goals.
3. At least one sample of a journalistic piece written or broadcast by the student. Applicant may submit two samples if desired. For print, the sample does not need to have been published, but must be typed and fill at least one page. Broadcast samples are acceptable on CD or accessible in an MP3 format.
4. An official copy of your transcript through the most recent semester or quarter.
5. Letter of recommendation from at least one teacher or faculty member who has had the opportunity to oversee your work and aptitude.
